A $40 Billion USD Air Filtration Industry. Dexwet's patented filter technology was focused on the filtration of fine dust particles for better air quality for machines and a secondary focus on circulated air quality, but with the current global pandemic of the Corona Virus, Dexwet is positioned with its current filter technology to help restore the world to pre-Corona Virus conditions.

Problem

Dust particles affect machine's performance and electricity use. Dust particles also affect people's allergies and respiratory functions.

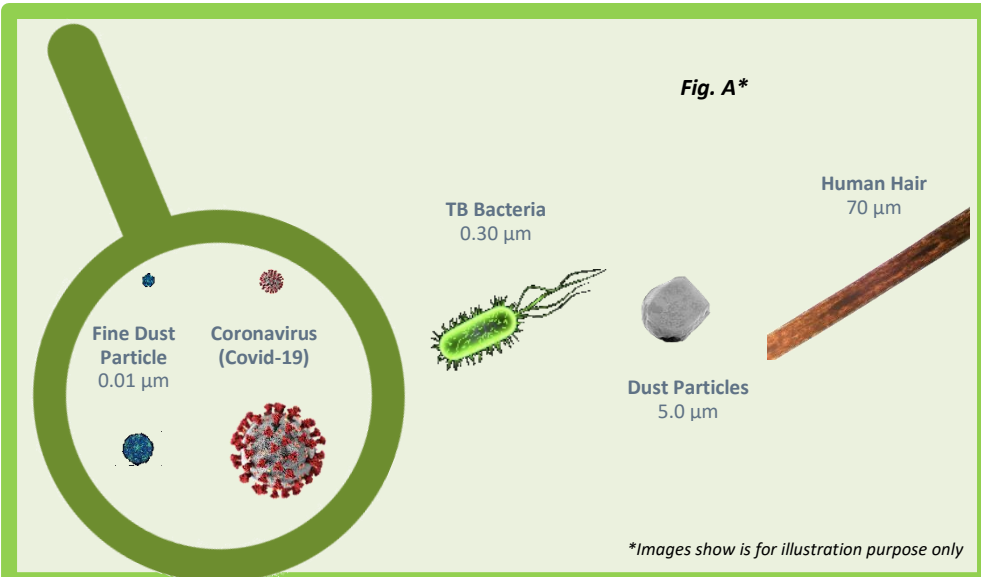

Solution

Dexwet filters are designed to mitigate fine dust particles, thus effective solution for both machines and people against dust.

New Problem & Solution

Airborne infections: Dexwet Filter technology has been tested by a European Air Filtration expert to be highly effective* against airborne pathogens including Coronavirus (COVID-19). (Fig. A)

It should be noted that no mitigation of infection risk is 100% effective.*
